Grandstanding for media charged

By JEFF BROWN

BELLE GLADE -- A tour of the blighted downtown section of Belle Glade by members of the county Community Relations Board last week was criticized by Mayor Thomas L. Altman as grandstanding for the media.

According to Altman, the board has never approached the city with any constructive proposals since it was instituted in 1980.

He and Tom White, Director of Human Resources for the county, said the board was created following the 1980 riots in Miami to help ease community tension between races and ethnic groups.

"My impression is that they are doing just the opposite," said Altman. "Instead of trying to ease community tension, they seem to want to incite community tension."

Altman said the board should attempt to work constructively with the city to solve the problems in the areas.

"They don't seem interested in that," he said. According to White, the board has no authority and can only make recommendations based on its findings to the Palm Beach County Commission and Community Development Board.

The Thursday, June 17, tour of several blighted sites in Belle Glade and South Bay was a fact-finding tour and no recommendations have yet come out of it, said White.

The members of the board took the tour in conjunction with their regular monthly meeting which was held at the South Bay target area this month, said White. He added that several members of the board were not familiar with the Glades and its problems prior to the trip.

The board members toured SW Sixth, Seventh and Eighth Streets in the downtown section of Bafalis campaign comes to Glades

By JIM JONES

L. A. "Skip" Bafalis, the conservative United States Representative, who is leaving one of the safest seats in Congress to challenge Gov. Bob Graham, journeyed to the Glades late Friday seeking support.

"Do you want more government, more regulation, and more taxes?" Bafalis asked a crowd of about 70 persons who gathered at John B. Boy Auditorium in Clewiston.

Bafalis promised to scale down state government and put more responsibility into the hands of local citizens if elected governor.

After leaving Clewiston, Bafalis was honored with a fund raising dinner in Belle Glade.

Bafalis said that since he first sought election to the state senate in 1967 he has enjoyed a close relationship with the people of the Glades.

"They are warm people who don't want a lot of government," he said. "It's a real conservative community, very compatible with my general philosophy."

Bafalis said his campaign is going well and pointed to great strides in improving his name

"There is more life than being in Washington."

recognition in the state.

At the start of the campaign in January, only about 14 percent of persons surveyed in the state said they had heard of Bafalis.

By the middle of June, however, 47 percent said they had heard of the Republican gubernatorial candidate.

"We're pleased with that. We feel we are about six weeks ahead of schedule," he said.

"If everything goes right and we raise enough money, we'll be as well known as the other guy by the election," he said.

Bafalis said his campaign would cost approximately $3½ million.

Bafalis said he agreed to give up his Congressional seat to challenge Graham at the request of Pres. Ronald Reagan.

Martin wants job back

PAHOKEE -- Donnie Martin, the Pahokee Public Works Director who allegedly resigned for health reasons last month, has notified the city that his recent surgery was job related and requested that the city reinstate him and allow him to return to his position.

According to the report, Edward Williams, Jr., 59, of Tampa, was attempting to pass a vehicle stopped in the north-bound lane of US 27 at about 11:45 a.m. when his tractor trailer struck the 1972 Lincoln Continental driven by Sandra D. Carpenter, 36, in the Use of Authority land sought

BELLE GLADE -- An agreement between the city of Belle Glade and the Palm Beach County Solid Waste Authority allowing the city to continue disposing of sludge at an authority operated site will probably solve a problem plaguing the city since it began softening its water supply.

The Budget and Policy Advisory Committee of the authority will recommend the authority's board that it enters a long-term agreement with the city permitting the city to dispose of thickened lime sludge at ponds operated by the authority in Belle Glade.

The ponds would be diked so sludge could not escape and the sludge would be re-tying has improved steadily. On July 1, 1981, the lake level was reported at 10.29 feet, compared to 14.94 feet June 25, 1980, and 14.809 feet on June 27, 1979.

During the worst of the recent drought, the SFWMD Board of Directors authorized back pumping from the agricultural area in an effort to conserve every possible drop of water.

With the drought over, SFWMD officials have become more quality conscious. On June 11, the board voted to restrict back pumping.

Another SFWMD spokesman, Margaret Yansura, said there was no backpumping going on anywhere around the lake Tuesday. Backpumping was suspended Monday due to unfavorable water quality.

Lisa Smith said that backpumping will be limited to eight to 10 hours after heavy storms, unless water quality tests indicate it is okay to put water back into the lake.

Lake returning to normal levels

By JIM JONES

Heavy daily rains, gusty winds, and sporadic reports of tornadoes have all but blown away this area's most serious drought in decades.

The prolonged drought threatened crops, created huge brush fires on Lake Okeechobee, and all but destroyed the commercial fishing industry.

But as of Tuesday, June 22, the level of Lake Okeechobee had climbed to 12.57 feet and there was speculation that the "supply-side" water policies might soon be abandoned.

The South Florida Water Management District (SFWMD), which imposed the supply-side restrictions last October, meets June 25 in emergency session to reconsider the measure.

"With this last move, it (the emergency) will be over," said SFWMD Spokesman Lisa Smith of the proposed lifting of water restrictions for the Everglades agricultural area.

Smith noted that Lake Okeechobee is "just a little bit below normal" for the time of year, but that ground water levels and conditions in the Kissimmee River Valley which fed the lake are "excellent."

By Oct. 1, water planners hope to have Lake Okeechobee back on schedule, she said.

With increased rainfalls, the lake level has improved steadily. On July 1, 1981, the lake level was reported at 10.29 feet, compared to 14.94 feet June 25, 1980, and 14.809 feet on June 27, 1979.

Ice house property to be cleaned up

PAHOKEE -- The ice house property located beside Pee Hoke Plaza on the Old Belle Glade Road going into Pahokee should be cleaned up within 30 days, the owner told the Pahokee City Council Tuesday, June 22.

Tommy Housch said he hired a contractor who started work on the project Monday, June 14, and that he gave the contractor 30 days to complete the project.

"I don't think he's going to have any problem meeting that deadline," said Housch. He said he plans to have the property cleaned "down to the bare earth" and may fill it in to make it more desirable.

In various media reports last week, it was reported that Hattson Properties had filed a suit against the city for neglecting to have the property cleaned, but council members Tuesday night said they have not been served with suit papers at that time.

City Attorney Michael Stauder said if the suit was filed on the coast, it may take a week or more to serve the council members with papers.

"We appreciate everything you can do on it, Tommy," newly elected Councilwoman Ada Bush told Housch. "Since it didn't take me long to get sued."

The ice house burned down in February 1981.

The council also awarded a street repairs contract to Gold Coast Paving Company, Inc. Gold Coast Paving was one of two companies to bid on the project.

The council approved a motion by Bush to transfer $7,500 from the budget for the city manager's salary to be used for reconditioning.

The council had budgeted $20,000 for a city manager in case the voters approved a charter change last fall. The proposed charter change was defeated and the funds were lying unused.

The council was informed by Stauder that it could have its city code revised and brought up to date for $10,500, but only $3,000 was budgeted for the job.

According to Stauder, the reconditioning will take up to 13 months.

Building Inspector Phelix Slonaker said the city has about $1,500 in a special fund for fireworks on July 4. $1,000 came from the city and

"He felt strongly about getting the governor's chair in the Republican column," Bafalis said.

Florida, now the seventh most populous state, is expected to eventually become the fourth largest.

Referring to an expected easy re-election to Congress if he had so chosen (he won re-election most recently with a landslide victory of about 80 percent of the vote), Bafalis said, "There's more to life than being in Washington."

Bafalis said growth of state government is out of control. In the last decade state government has grown 200 percent and the governor's office has grown 600 percent.

The state needs a strong governor with strong beliefs. The criminal element needs to be run out of the state, and the size of government reduced, he said.

Bafalis said he wants to reform the welfare system. Some families making as much as $14,000 or $15,000 a year are also receiving welfare benefits, he said.

Mothers who are capable of working and who are receiving dependent aid for children should be required to work, he said.

Bafalis said crime is booming all over the state. He called for assurances that people who commit crimes will be tried, convicted, and receive maximum sentences.

He objected to what he called "Jail isn't going to be a country club. It's going to be punishment."

life in "concrete country clubs" for prisoners, saying convicts should have to work to pay for their incarceration, raising their own food, and repairing roads.

"Jail isn't going to be a country club. It's going to be punishment," he said.

Committee reviews budget draft

BELLE GLADE - The Glades Budget and Advisory Committee of the Palm Beach County Solid Waste Authority reviewed and revised a budget draft for the authority's Glades operations Monday night, June 22.

Executive Director Timothy F. Hunt, Jr., submitted a tentative draft of a budget based on 26,000 tons of garbage. The $615,663 budget was over $23,000 below the budget for 1981-82, but several committee members, particularly Chairman Bill Bailey and Belle Glade Mayor Thomas L. Altman, were able to further reduce that figure.

Maintenance figures totalling $30,500 were reduced to $23,000. Last year, $10,500 was budgeted in those categories.

Altman also suggested reducing $2,500 earmarked for office supplies to $1,000. In 1981-82, that figure was $1,500. Altman said the office supplies budget should be less this year because the authority is not faced with opening a new operation. Last year, it had to start operation of the Glades transfer station.

Four-thousand eight-hundred dollars budgeted for miscellaneous operation supplies was cut to last year's $3,000 level, and $4,800 budgeted for small tools and implements was reduced to $3,000 too.

The proposed $18,000 tire budget was cut in half.

Hunt said he will prepare a formal budget proposal for the committee's July meeting.

He said his proposal will also include a rate schedule which may be distributed to municipalities for use in developing their annual budget.

TOM LEWIS

Lewis to be honored

A reception will be held for Senator Tom Lewis at the Belle Glade Elks Club on Tuesday, July 6, from 6 P.M. 'til 8 P.M.

Senator Lewis is running for the United States Congress and has represented the Glades area in the Florida Legislature for the past ten years. He has a keen awareness of the needs of agriculture and is highly respected by all who have served with him.

The event is being planned by a group of Glades Residents including Western Palm Beach Counties, Hendry County and Glades County. Letters of invitation have been mailed out along with tickets for the event.

The tickets are $50 per person and all proceeds will be considered as a contribution to the Tom Lewis Campaign Fund.

Dale Morris to head banking institute

PAHOKEE • Dale Morris, Assistant Vice President of the Bank of Pahokee, has been elected president of the Palm Beach County chapter of the American Institute of Banking (AIB).

Morris recently attended the national conference of AIB in Dallas, Tex. where the Palm Beach County chapter was cited as the third best chapter in the nation.

About 1,500 county bankers representing 40 commercial banks make up the membership of the association dedicated to continuing education for the banking profession.

Founded in 1900 by the American Bankers Association as the educational arm of the national professional and trade association for America's commercial banks, AIB is the largest civilian adult education program in the world. "The Bank of Pahokee extends our congratulations to Mr. Morris on this important achievement," said Julius T. Moon, president of the Bank of Pahokee. "We take great pride in sharing in the accomplishments of our professional bankers like Mr. Morris."

Morris is chairman of the Pahokee Chapter of the American Heart Association and is a member of the Pahokee Lions Club. He is a graduate of Florida State University and chairs the area's Seminole Boosters Club.

Morris attends the Pahokee Baptist Church and lives in Pahokee.

He is currently enrolled in the Bank Administration Institute School of Banking of the University of Wisconsin in Madison, Wisc.

KFC to raise funds for March of Dimes

Belle Glade - The Colonel Sanders Memorial "Help Change the Future" March of Dimes campaign is about to start its fourth annual fund-raising drive to help assure every child a healthy start in life. The campaign kick-off was announced today by John Wurster, President of the local Kentucky Fried Chicken co-op and Kathleen Clemens, Executive Director of the local March of Dimes chapter 1665 Palm Beach Blvd., West Palm Beach.

"We want to do our part to help the March of Dimes in its fight to prevent birth defects," said Wurster. "With the help of the people of South Florida, we hope to assure a better tomorrow for American children."

The month-long fund-raising campaign will continue through July and all Kentucky Fried Chicken employees will work closely with the West Palm Beach March of Dimes Chapter. Each store will have a special canister into which patrons are urged to donate their change to "Help Change the Future." In addition, a contribution of 10¢ will be made to the March of Dimes for each chicken item purchased on July 3, 4 or

5. According to local March of Dimes Executive Director Kathleen Clemens, "Half of all monies raised here in South Florida will be returned to the local community to benefit our chapter programs. The other half supports national research and medical education activities."

The March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation was established in 1938 by President Franklin D. Delano Roosevelt to wipe out the childhood disease, poliomyelitis. It is the only voluntary health organization to achieve its goal. In 1958, the March of Dimes rededicated its efforts to eradicating birth defects, the nation's No. 1 health problem. Colonel Harland Sanders, the Founder of Kentucky Fried Chicken, was devoted to the March of Dimes and worked tirelessly to raise funds in order to assure every child a healthy start in life. The Colonel Sanders Memorial "Help Change the Future" campaign will continue to fight birth defects in his name, working for a cause that was so close to his heart. It's his legacy to America's children.

County tour

Belle Glade, several areas in South Bay which have been receiving attention through the county Community Development Program, and the Belle Glade Housing Authority projects at Okeechobee and Ocoee Centers.

The tours were completed by bus and none of the members got out of the bus to meet with local residents, according to White.

White said the board members were favorably impressed with the progress made at the housing authority projects. In an earlier visit, he said the members had seen raw sewage on the ground at Okeechobee Center. That problem has been improved, he said.

Several members of the Community Relations Board suggested that Okeechobee Center, which lies outside the Belle Glade city limits, should be incorporated into the city.

White said this would give the residents the opportunity to elect representatives to the city government who would work for improving the situation.

He said the board had asked the county commission in early March to inquire into the possibility of Belle Glade annexing the housing project, but didn't know of any specific action.

"All of a sudden, though, there was movement in the refurbishing of the housing situation in the center," said White.

Altman said the question of annexing the project had been breached several times in the past, but that the authority had never requested that the center be brought into the city. He said several factors work against annexing the project:

- It would spread the city's already thin tax base even thinner.

- "When the city annexes property, it assumes the burden of supplying city services," said Altman. "And it acquires the benefit of added tax revenues."

The housing authority is tax exempt and the city would have to provide services to the center without a corresponding increase in the tax base, according to Altman.

- The city has never involuntarily annexed someone's property since he has been with it, said Altman. The Authority has never requested that the city annex the project, and any request that the city do so would have to come from the authority to be considered valid.

- State law prohibits municipalities from annexing territory which is not contiguous with their borders. Altman said that Okeechobee Center is not contiguous with the city, and therefore he doesn't think the state would allow the city to "leapfrog" out and annex it.

Give-away registration sites named

BELLE GLADE --

Three sites have been designated by the Golden Gators for needy people to register for free cheese.

According to David M. Keiter, chief of operations for the non profit organization, pre-registration will enable people to receive the cheese at the satellite they registered at, thus avoiding the crowds that gather at the National Guard Armory on general distribution days.

In the Glades, needy people have until Friday, July 2, to pre-register at one of the three locations in the Glades.

In South Bay, people can pre-register at the Community Action Center at 625 Palm Beach Road.

In Belle Glade, the Division of Senior Services on NW Avenue L is the pre-registration and distribution site. In Pahokee, pre-registering can be accomplished at the Community Action Council at Padgett Island Center.

The next general distribution of United States Department of Agriculture cheese in the Glades will be Wednesday, July 7, 1982, according to Keiter.

"There's a very big question in my mind that the state law would allow us to annex it," he said.

White said the board members on the tour were not as impressed with the conditions in the downtown section of Belle Glade. The residents of that part of the city are facing overcrowding, cramped conditions and unemployment, he said.

He said the group will make another tour of the area in November or December when the harvesting season is underway and more people are working, but the conditions startled many of the members, most of whom are from upper middle class backgrounds.

Altman said the city had been cooperating with the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development in an urban renewal program, but that the $400,000 per year it receives is just a "drop in the buck compared to the problems we have to try to improve on."

The city has applied for increased funding through the program this year, he said.

"We can chip away at it," said Altman. "But these are problems that have grown over 50 years and we aren't going to eliminate them overnight. Our resources are limited."

The city is "looking into different types of economic development to diversify the city's economic base," Altman said. "We'll try to do what we can. There's only so many things a small city can do."

"We offer the customer personalized service and low every-day prices," said Sam Boris. "We want to provide attentive service and a friendly atmosphere."

Boris was born in Jacksonville, but grew up in Lake City and South Georgia. He attended Brooke County High School and Valdosta High School before entering the U. S. Navy for a four-year tour of duty.

Most of his service was in the Pacific and included 2 1/2 years of sea duty. He also served at Pearl Harbor.

After his discharge, he married Dana McGowan of Minneapolis, Minn., attended Broward Community College, and worked for Florida Power and Light Co. Three years ago he joined Foodway of Pahokee.

The Borises have three children, Kimberly, 10,

Neal, 6, and Danielle, 5. The children attend Glades Day School.

Sam Boris finds Pahokee to be the ideal area. "The people are very friendly and understanding and we enjoy serving them," he said. In his spare time, Sam enjoys boating and fishing, and Lake Okeechobee offers the world's best.

Customer service is a philosophy at Foodway. The meat market offers special cuts at the customer's request.

"We have a lot of call-ins. Meat Market Manager Leslie Lawrence has it ready for them when they come in," Boris said.

"We want to make sure that our customers are taken care of," he said.

Others helping to keep Foodway's customers satisfied are Richard Gathman, assistant manager, and James Coronette, produce manager.

Foodway of Pahokee is open Monday through Thursday from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m., Friday and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., and Sunday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

SIX BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL Women from Belle Glade attended the 62nd annual convention June 10-13 held at the Saddlebrook Resort, Wesley Chapel, Florida.

Six BPW members attend conclave

BELLE GLADE—The Belle Glade Business and Professional Women (BPW) recently returned from the 62nd convention of the Florida Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc. held at the Saddlebrook Resort, Wesley Chapel, Florida.

The local BPW had six representatives at the event held June 10-13. According to Sonya Watkins, recording secretary, they were all voting delegates. Representing the local BPW were Jean Burns, Rickie McCoy, Virginia Williams, Sonya Watkins, Nataleah Nachman and Mickey Wright.

The first business meeting was held on Friday, the 11th, and during that meeting the group heard from candidates for state offices and delegates to the national convention.

Mrs. Watkins said the group had the opportunity to get to see very successful women and how they present themselves. She said "We were able to meet and socialize with women who are successful in their chosen field and it helped us to know how to conduct ourselves in a professional manner."

The main purpose of the convention was to elect state officers, select delegates to the national convention and to form and vote on their legislative platforms. The local BPW members said they were also taught how to organize better programs for their local club. "They gave us helpful information on how to get free films from corporations, libraries and educational facilities, utilize local professional and business people and how to gear programs to the needs of our local club members," Mrs. Watkins said.

A highlight of the convention, she said, was circus night where everyone dressed as clowns and played games of chance and skill for gag gifts. She said it was a chance to meet women from all over the state in a relaxed, cordial atmosphere.

"Another highlight was a first person monologue of Susan B. Anthony by professional actress Barbara Rowe," said Mrs. Watkins. "She spoke on how the Women's Movement has progressed."

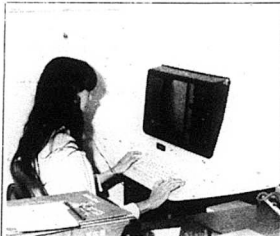

The local BPW has some events planned for the future according to Ricki McCoy, First Vice-President and Program Chairman. "We plan to organize a 'Dress for Success' hopefully utilizing local shops to help develop wardrobes for the working woman based on three budget levels; a relatively inexpensive budget, a medium budget and a maximum budget."

The local club, according to McCoy, will use the proceeds from this function to set up a scholarship for a local housewife who would like to further or continue her education but needs financial assistance.

Another event planned by the BPW is a candidates night. They hope to invite candidates running for political offices to speak before a group of members from several local Business and Professional Women's Clubs.

Conipe upsets All Stars

By JEFF BROWN
BELLE GLADE: Ten games into the season, the Bobby Conipe city league softball team finally won its first game by upsetting the All Stars 7-4 last week.

Doug Williams held the All Stars to just four runs on six hits. He gave up a hit in the first to Jessie Brown, but the runner was stranded when Lonza Butts flew out to right center to end the top half of the inning.

Roger Dunaway reached first on a single in the bottom of the inning, but he and Winston Byrd, who reached first on an error at second and advanced to second on Dunaway's single, were left on base.

Willie McKelvin was issued a two out in the All Stars half of the second, but he caused no damage when Williams retired Jewel Everett.

Pat Masters led off the Conipe half of the inning with a single, but he advanced no further.

The All Stars took the lead in the top of the third, scoring two runs on two hits.

W. Smith started the inning by reaching first on a shortstop error. Frank Williams flew out to second, but Norman Smith followed with a single to advance the runner.

Adam Ford flew out to right center and Brown knocked a double to score the runners and give the All Stars a 2-0 lead.

Conipe came back with four runs in the bottom half of the inning, though, to take a lead they wouldn't relinquish.

Doug Williams led off with a walk. One out later, Charles Miller singled. Winston Byrd reached first on an error and Williams went home.

Dunaway followed with a sacrifice to left, scoring Miller. Priest hit a double to score Byrd and Bobby Conipe was up 3-2 with two out and a runner at second.

Masters knocked Priest home with a single to give Bobby Conipe a two run lead.

Neither side scored in the fourth, but the All Stars came back with a run in the fifth to close the gap to one.

James Henry led off with a single. One out later, he was tagged out at home on a throw from Priest in left. Ford sacrificed to drive Norman Smith home from second and the score was 4-3.

Bobby Conipe put the game away in the bottom of the fifth when they scored three runs on three hits.

Miller led off with his second hit of the night and Byrd managed to advance him when he reached on an error at second base.

Dunaway batted in a run on his second single of the night and Priest sacrificed to bat in another run.

Masters picked up his third hit and drove in another run with single, but was picked off in a fielders choice. When Curtis Mosley lined out to short, the score stood at 7-3.

The All Stars tried to rally with a run in the sixth, but Bobby Conipe had out-distanced them enough to win the run by the end of six and a half.

Jessie Brown homered to lead off the All Stars' sixth, but the All Stars couldn't keep the rally going and three batters flew out to left to stifle the comeback.

In other A Division games last week, Mace Sod defeated Glades General Hospital 11-2, and Carter Chevrolet beat Bobby Conipe 7-6.

B Division

Duda three hits Quaker

By JEFF BROWN
BELLE GLADE: Chuck Anderson held Quaker Oats to just three hits to lead the Duda softball team to an 11-0 victory and widen Duda's lead in the B Division standings.

Anderson faced 29 batters in seven innings, walking two. Two batters reached base in the seventh inning on second baseman Alan Cumpston's errors.

While Anderson was silencing Quaker's bats, Duda's bats hit 11 runs on the scoreboard, nine of them in the first two innings.

Terry Combs led off the first with a triple. Cumpston batted him in with a single from the second spot in the order. Joe Miller walked Ken Schlechter and Eddie Boswell's single loaded the bases. Billy Sanchez doubled to drive in score the baserunners and he scored on a sacrifice to right by Jeff Jones.

In the second, John Hood connected for a one out double, Combs walked and Cumpston flew to short.

Schlechter's single knocked in one run and Boswell scored Combs with a single. Sanchez cleared the bases with his single to make the score 9-0.

Terry Hess picked up the first hit for Quaker Oats when he connected for a single to lead off the third. Quaker Oats put together a minor threat that inning when Anderson walked Miller with one out and Hess on first. Jimmy Wisper flew out to left and Jack Scott grounded back to the mound to end the inning.

In the fifth, Duda extended their lead with two runs on three hits. Cumpston hit his second single of the night to open the inning. He was followed by Schlechter, who also gathered his second base hit of the night.

Boswell batted Cumpston in with a sacrifice to right field. With two out, Anderson helped his cause with a RBI single. Jones walked and Hernandez grounded to third to end the inning.

Duda loaded the bases in the sixth, but Anderson pitched out of it. Miller singled with one out and Anderson walked Jimmy Wisper. Scott loaded the bases with a single and Quaker Oats was in the auspicious position of having only one out with the number three and four spots in the batting coming up.

Anderson got Mel Lumpkin to fly out to the shortstop, saving a run. Anderson fielded a 3-6 Sprouse grounded and threw Scott out at second to end the inning.

Two errors by the Duda second baseman advanced Quaker Oats runners to first and second in the seventh, but Anderson again pitched out trouble to save the three-hit shutout.

In other B Division play, Everglades Farm Equipment and Theo's, tied for second, spared off against each other twice and each walked away with a victory.

Theo's lost to Everglades Farm Equipment in the first game, 10-9, but won the second game 16-13.

Quaker Oats lost two times to Duda by 11-0 scores last week, once in a three-hitter and a second time in a four-hitter.

Quaker Oats defeated Ag Service 8-1 and Ag Service defeated the Seminole Supply Oldtimers 9-6.

MEDICAL RECORDS WEEK OBSERVED. Glades General Hospital Medical records staff celebrated the occasion with an open house and the installation of new equipment for the Department. Dona Shelton, director of Medical Records, standing and Wilma Royal, medical records technician, are shown at the new Bell & Howell Micro-film camera used to film medical records.

Glades General

Dept. holds open house June 17

BELLE GLADE-In observance of National Medical Records Week Glades General Hospital held an open house for its Medical Records Department on June 17.

Gov. Bob Graham proclaimed June 13 through 19 as Medical Records Week. According to Felicia Robinson, community relations director for the hospital, many visitors stopped by the Medical Records to view the department and to talk with the staff about the day to day operation of the department.

Mrs. Robinson said during open house visitors were given the opportunity to view new sophisticated machinery used to formulate medical records.

Mrs. Dona Shelton, an accredited medical records technician and director of Medical Records at Glades General since 1964 said the department has acquired four new machines to help the department's technicians with record keeping.

Mrs. Shelton said a new Bell & Howell micro-film camera was installed during open house. "This new camera will change the way medical records are recorded and stored at Glades General," said Mrs. Shelton.

Instead of the records being stored in folders on a shelf which takes lots of space according to Mrs. Shelton, everything will be filmed causing a vast reduction in the amount of space needed.

Mrs. Robinson said the department also received a micro-film reader printer, an automatic micro-film jacket filler and a micro film reader.

In appreciation of the work the Medical Records staff performs, Mrs. Robinson said the hospital gave each medical records employee a corsage.

Mrs. Robinson said the department is staffed by Albie Hightower, medical records technician; Shirley Derr, medical records clerk; and Mrs. Wilma Royal, an accredited record technician.

the letter to the council at its Tuesday, June 22 meeting.

In the letter, Martin requested that he be reinstated as of May 21, his last day on the job, and he receive workman's compensation from that date.

He also asked that he be permitted to return to work as Public Works Director when he is medically able.

Martin said his surgery was a result of a job related accident, but did not go into detail in his written statement to the council.

He also said he did not resign but was terminated medically by the council.

City Clerk Betty J. McCoy said Martin had verbally resigned in the presence of Mayor Duncan Padgett and her.

City Attorney Michael Stauder suggested the city file a first report of injury with the insurance company since it was supposedly the first time the city had been notified that Martin was injured while working for the city.

MEDICAL RECORDS WEEK OBSERVED. Glades General Hospital Medical records staff celebrated the occasion with an open house and the installation of new equipment for the Department. Dona Shelton, director of Medical Records, standing and Wilma Royal, medical records technician, are shown at the new Bell & Howell Micro-film camera used to film medical records.

Glades General

Dept. holds open house June 17

BELLE GLADE-In observance of National Medical Records Week Glades General Hospital held an open house for its Medical Records Department on June 17.

Gov. Bob Graham proclaimed June 13 through 19 as Medical Records Week. According to Felicia Robinson, community relations director for the hospital, many visitors stopped by the Medical Records to view the department and to talk with the staff about the day to day operation of the department.

Mrs. Robinson said during open house visitors were given the opportunity to view new sophisticated machinery used to formulate medical records.

Mrs. Dona Shelton, an accredited medical records technician and director of Medical Records at Glades General since 1964 said the department has acquired four new machines to help the department's technicians with record keeping.

Mrs. Shelton said a new Bell & Howell micro-film camera was installed during open house. "This new camera will change the way medical records are recorded and stored at Glades General," said Mrs. Shelton.

Instead of the records being stored in folders on a shelf which takes lots of space according to Mrs. Shelton, everything will be filmed causing a vast reduction in the amount of space needed.

Mrs. Robinson said the department also received a micro-film reader printer, an automatic micro-film jacket filler and a micro film reader.

In appreciation of the work the Medical Records staff performs, Mrs. Robinson said the hospital gave each medical records employee a corsage.

Mrs. Robinson said the department is staffed by Albie Hightower, medical records technician; Shirley Derr, medical records clerk; and Mrs. Wilma Royal, an accredited record technician.

BELLE GLADE-PAHOKEE, FL.

Lourdecita

LOURDES SAINZ hopes to have a successful singing and modeling career in the United States. She was a cover girl in Costa-Rica and now lives in Belle Glade.

LOURDECITA is now a teller at Florida National Bank. SHE is an intoxicating blend of beauty and talent.

A bewitching smile...

by Jim Jones

She comes to Belle Glade by way of Cuba, Costa Rica and Miami. Right away, one notices the eyes of brilliant blue, flowing brown tresses, and bewitching smile.

This is clearly a beautiful woman with a personality and talent to match. Her name is Lourdes Sainz, 25, and she makes her living as a teller at Florida National Bank in Belle Glade.

Back in Costa Rica, one of the most progressive countries in Latin America, they called her Lourdecita and she was renowned for her modeling and singing ability.

Lourdecita's photograph adorned magazine covers, posters, and calendars.

Her voice was heard on radio and television commercials in Venezuela, Mexico, and Central America, singing jingles for Alka Seltzer and Colgate-Palmolive.

As a child, she sang and played the guitar at home. Her career took off at age seven when a friend of her father's heard her singing and encouraged them to let Lourdecita sing on Costa Rican television.

She has since made records in Spanish for RCA and CBS.

She sings rock, country, Spanish music, and Portuguese music. "Slow music, fast music, a little bit of everything," she says.

At the same time, she was making a name for herself as a model, and winning awards for her commercials.

In Costa Rica, she met Fernando Sainz, who like herself had been born in Cuba and was a model. The two often worked together and were married in Costa Rica.

When the Costa Rican economy began to sour badly, Lourdes and Fernando decided to try a new life in Miami.

While Fernando was working for Talisman Sugar, he discovered Belle Glade and introduced Lourdes to the Glades. They moved there three months ago.

"I came here (to Florida National Bank) to open my account. I mentioned to them that I used to work in a bank and they gave me an application to fill out. I went to work the next day," she said.

"I feel like I have been at home since my first day," she said. "I really like it. It's quiet, peaceful, and you can have your pets. I'm very happy here," she said.

Lourdes and Fernando have a pet monkey named "Hooper" — like in the Burt Reynolds movie, "and a dog named "Moonshine."

Lourdes is making plans already to resume her singing and modeling career. She has already made a commercial for Channel 6 television and has modeled for boutiques.

She believes that she can succeed here just as she did in Costa Rica.

Some day soon, the name Lourdecita may be as well-known here as it was in San Jose.

DOUBLE DUTCH

by ALMA HENRY

*Teddy Bear, Teddy Bear, turn around around Teddy Bear, Teddy Bear, touch the ground
Teddy Bear, Teddy Bear, play some tricks Teddy Bear, Teddy Bear, don't use sticks!*

"Teddy Bear" is a rhyme sung differently all over the world. It can be heard in such faraway places as South Africa and Japan. And sometimes the bear in the song has different names. Some youngsters like to change him into a ladybug or a butterfly or a Spanish dancer or even, Buster Brown.

Lately "Teddy Bear" has been come the theme song for many youngsters participating in the Double Dutch Contest.

A new recreational sports, Double Dutch is based on the ancient rope jumping game using two ropes twirling in opposite directions, with two turners and one or two jumpers.

Double Dutch has come alive in the America, after having been brought to America over 300 years ago by Dutch settlers to the trading town of New York City.

Two New York policemen revived the sport in 1973 and now it's a competitive sport in many states.

The Palm Glades Girls Scout Council sponsored a Double Dutch clinic for youth in the Glades at the Wee Care Child Development Center on June 16.

Mrs. Iraida Ruiz, center director said approximately 40 youth attended the clinic.

Mrs. Fran Burke of the Palm Glades Girl Scout Council said the agency is sponsoring the 1982 Florida Tournament through grants from United Technologies Pratt and Whitney Aircraft in cooperation with the American Double Dutch League.

She said prior to the tournament, the Council is sponsoring clinics throughout the county to familiarize youngsters with the rules of Double Dutch.

Although Double Dutch uses everyday jumping techniques, Mrs. Burke said jumping double dutch in the streets is not the same as jumping in a real Double Dutch tournament.

At Wednesday's clinic, Mrs. Burke along with Vickie Smith, Felicia Smith, Kim Smith and their coach, Miss Diane Douglas, a physical education teacher at Roosevelt Elementary School familiarized the participants with Double Dutch rules.

Mrs. Burke said the contest is divided into three categories.

"The first one is called the Single Speed Test. The team scores points based on the number of jumps performed within a two minutes time period."

"The second test is called the Compulsory Trick Test. Each singles and doubles team has to do three tricks in 30 seconds."

"The third test, Free Style, is the favorite one of all according to Mrs. Burke."

Each team has one minute to do three or as many as five tricks which the team make up itself.

The team consists of three team members for the Single team and the Double team is composed of four members; two turners and two jumpers.

The tournament is open to both boys and girls from grades 5 through 12. All team members must come from the same grade, except for grades 9 through 12. Mrs. Burke said those grades may mix team members. Each team must have a coach to enter the competition. Coaches are allowed to coach more than one team.

The semi-final competition will be held June 26 and the finals are August 14 at 2 p.m., at Palm Beach Garden High School in West Palm Beach. Registration starts at 1 p.m. and the competition gets underway at 2 p.m.

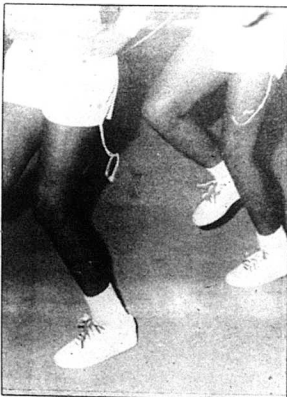

Admission is free by ticket only. Entry and ticket information are available at the Wee Care Child Development Center, 209 S.W. 10th St., Belle Glade.

Mrs. Burke said everything is free. "Pratt and Whitney is providing the ropes, rule books, FAST AND FANCY foot work is the name of the game in the Double Dutch jump rope competition. This fancy foot work was seen recently at the Wee Care Child Development Center in Belle Glade.

SISTERS Vickie, Felicia and Kim Smith of West Palm Beach show youngsters attending the Double Dutch Clinic at the Wee care Center some of the basic techniques for the contest.

Phyllis Lilley

Before we start on this weeks recipe submitted by Phyllis Lilley, we need to make a correction in last weeks recipe for buttermilk pie. The recipe called for nine tablespoons of vanilla, an unreal amount, it was typed incorrectly and should have read nine tablespoons of buttermilk and one teaspoon of vanilla. We hope you didn't try it the other way.

Phyllis Lilley has been the librarian at the Belle Glade Municipal Library for four years. She is originally from Connecticut. She has a Masters Degree in Library Science and a Bachelors Degree in Early Childhood Education. Before moving to Belle Glade, Phyllis taught for three years in Connecticut and Australia. She enjoys crocheting as a hobby. Phyllis said this recipe was for Kapusta is something her grandmother always made and she had never written it down before now. She suggests that the best use of this dish is for Kielbasa and Perogies (similar to Ravioli but stuffed with Potato Cabbage or cheese). She said it also makes a nice side for any meat or poultry dish.

Kapusta

one large head of cabbage coarsely shredded two medium onions cut up four large fresh tomatoes or one large can of whole tomatoes cut into wedges salt and pepper to taste
one medium can of tomato sauce three cups of water

In a large pot add ingredients as listed. Simmer over low heat until it reaches the tenderness you desire. Occasionally check level of liquid. do not let it get too low.

This recipe freezes well.

Plant seminars are slated

BELLE GLADE -- Gene Joyner, an urban horticulturist with the Palm Beach County Department of Agriculture, will be presenting two plant seminars at the Palm Beach County Cooperative Extension Service in Belle Glade July 2.

Starting at 9:30 a.m., he will conduct a free seminar on lawn maintenance. The presentation, illustrated with slides, will assist individuals in identifying major problems with lawns and how to maintain them, including using fertilizers and controlling weeds.

At 11 a.m. that day, he will conduct a free clinic on plants. The clinic is set up for the purpose of allowing the public to bring in any problems they are having with their trees, shrubbery or lawns for an agent to look at and diagnose. Persons who are unable to come to the office during the clinic may call in plant problems at 996-1655.

ARC gospel sing

PAHOKEE -- The Glades area Association of Retarded Citizens will be sponsoring a Gospel Sing at the Prince Theatre in Pahokee August 28, at 7:30 p.m., according to Jim Usher. The Florida Harvesters will perform at the event.

Tickets for the fund raising event are $5 in advance and $6 at the door.

Rivals named to dean's list

MONTICELLO, ARK. -- The University of Arkansas at Monticello listed 318 students to its Dean's List for the 1982 spring semester, according to Robert L. Kirchman, registrar.

Among those students named to the list were Anna M. Rivas of Belle Glade. To qualify for the Dean's List, students must compile a least a 3.25 grade point average on a 4.0 scale.

Purchase of camp approved

PAHOKEE -- Palm Beach County Community Development may purchase the old Everglades Labor Camp from the Pahokee Housing Authority and develop it into low cost housing.

The authority's board of commissioners Thursday, June 17, approved the reassignment of the contract to H.E. Hill, who said he in turn will reassign the contract to Community Development.

The contract is currently possessed by Joe Alderman, who the won the bid for the property in April 1981.

Alderman had one year to close the transaction, but was given a 60-day extension on the closing earlier this year.

The commissioners granted another extension at last week's meeting to allow the county, Hill and Alderman to get the details worked out.

The extension is subject to the authority receiving:

- A letter from Community Development showing interest in the property.

- Notice that the contract of sale has been assigned from Alderman to Hill, and
- A letter showing Hill's intent to assign the contract to Community Development.

Hill told the board that the county will probably be building 1,000 low cost, home-owner housing units consisting of three bedrooms, one bathroom and "no frills."

"I think we've got to jump at the opportunity to get some more low cost housing in this area," said Hill.

FHP predicts 28 deaths

Tallahassee -- The Florida Highway Patrol predicted today that 28 persons will die in Florida traffic accidents during the 76 hour Fourth of July holiday period beginning at 6 P.M., Friday, July 2, and ending midnight, Monday, July 5.

This prediction is based on fatality experience during the holiday period for the past three years.

Colonel Eldridge Beach, Patrol director said, "The Florida Highway Patrol will begin enforcement of Florida's new drunk driving law that becomes effective July 1st along with continued enforcement of all traffic laws that are frequently ignored by many motorists resulting in needless deaths and injuries. In other words," Beach stated, "if you drink and drive or violate any other traffic laws, we plan to give you a trooper for a chaser."

During the holiday period in 1979, which was only 30 hours, nine persons lost their lives in traffic crashes. The death toll increased to 22 in 1980 and to 35 in 1981 during the Independence Day holiday period which were 78 hours each year. Ten or 3.5% of the fatal accidents that claimed the lives of 35 persons during this holiday last year occurred at intersections and 23 of the 25 fatal accidents involved vehicles that were equipped with seat belts and safety equipment; yet only two of them were using it. Twenty-two, or 63% of the 35 persons killed were 35 or younger.

Patrol records list the five leading contributing causes of fatal traffic accidents during the Independence Day holiday period last year which were: Careless driving, failure to yield the right-of-way, driving to the left of center of the roadway, and exceeding a safe speed.

Colonel Beach concluded by warning motorists that "Every available trooper and auxiliary officer will be on the highways in force making maximum use of planes and radar during this holiday period."

Gas prices rise 9 cents

Tampa -- Florida gasoline prices jumped by 9.1 cent per gallon in the last month. This huge increase nearly wiped out most of the price declines experienced in the first four months of 1982.

While the overall jump was 9.1 cents per gallon, motorists using self service paid 11.6 cents per gallon more for regular and 10.3 cents per gallon more for unleaded during the last 30 days.

The latest AAA Clubs of Florida Fuel Gauge Report shows the average price of full service regular reached $1.33.5, up 7.3 cents per gallon since May. Unleaded was $1.39.5, up 7.2 cents. At the self service lane, the motorist paid $1.17.2 for regular, compared to $1.05.5 in May, and $1.25.3 for unleaded, up over the $1.15 in May.

Motorists can still save at the self service pumps but the savings on regular and unleaded dropped from 19 cents per gallon in May to 15.3 cents per gallon in June.

Beginning with this fuel gauge survey, the AAA is making city by city price reports and both full service and self service regular and unleaded gasoline.
